About us

EnV is a Community Interest Company (C.I.C) born from the London 2012 Olympic Games legacy. We offer award-winning services specialising in Events, Training & Volunteer programmes working with event and conference providers, local authorities, destination management organisations, education, businesses and community organisations.

We are focused towards providing a positive impact for people and their communities with volunteers at the heart of everything we do.

This is all reflected in our mission of:

Benefiting the community by providing quality events, training and volunteers in the community, by the community, for the community.

Our organisation and volunteer programmes have been awarded the Queens Award for Voluntary Service twice in 2012 and 2020. We also work with other cities sharing our input and expertise as a model of best practice including having worked with Tokyo2020 and Birmingham2022 volunteer programmes.

“

I just wanted to say a big thank you for the City Host programme. It is an AMAZING experience. After suffering during the lockdown, it has brought me so much joy.

I have been able to do things behind the scenes which has been of benefit to my career and social skills. EnV sees your potential and rewards the time you spend; it really is unique in that.
